

How does it change your perspective of the Bible to know that, “The whole Bible points to Jesus”?

Which of Jesus’ three roles (Prophet, Priest, King) is most interesting to you?

Why do you think that the Old Testament prophets often encountered opposition?

Are Christians called to be prophets? Why or why not?

What areas might a modern-day prophet call God’s people to repent and return?

Spend some time researching other prophets in the Bible and reflect upon how God used them.

Which of the three prophets in the sermon (Moses, Jonah, Elijah) are the most interesting to you? Why?

How does Jesus embrace the role of Prophet in his ministry? What are some specific example of times when he heard the voice of God and then spoke on his behalf?

What areas would Jesus call you to repent and return in your life today?