

Reflection Questions:

- Reflect upon a time when you felt betrayed. Have you ever betrayed someone? Reflect upon this as well.
- Why is betrayal often unexpected?
- Reflect upon a time when it appeared that everyone was against you. Who actually wasn't against you in that moment?
- Why does betrayal feel like being thrown in a pit?
- Who of your friends have climbed down into the pit with you in moments of betrayal? Why do you think they did this?
- How does the thought of Jesus' betrayal give us strength in moments of our own betrayals?
- As Jesus hung upon the cross, none of his friends came to his rescue. In fact, to some extent, they all betrayed him. What does this insight reveal to you about Jesus' experience of betrayal?