

Reflection Questions

How does pride tend to lead to all types of sins in a person's life?

What are some grievous sins within the church that we tend to ignore today?

Why is repentance central to true Christianity?

Can someone who isn't repentant passionately follow Jesus?

What are the practical implications of dealing with difficult issues within the church family today?

What are some of the sayings of the world that sound attractive but aren't godly?

Paul refers to two pictures in the end of this section. One is the picture of the garden of Eden and the other is the picture of the temple. What do these pictures reveal about the nature of God's desired relationship with us?