

Reflection Questions

- How can you live and worship in ways that promote unity and interdependence?
- In worship and everyday life, are you a “giver” or a “taker?” How will you choose to live as a “giver” instead of a “taker?”
- In what spiritual gifts do you believe you’re strong? How can you use these gifts for the good of others — in the body and in the world?
- How will you begin to call out the gifts in others, and allow others to call out the gifts in you?
- What are some ways you will live out and use your spiritual gifts this week?