

Reflection Questions:

- When was the last time you needed a season of healing?
- When was the last time someone you loved needed a season of healing?
- What are your first reactions in moments when healing is needed?
- Why do you think that faith is so impacted in seasons of healing?
- Who do you relate with more quickly in this story, Jairus or the unnamed woman? Why?
- Do you ever have any barriers when asking for healing from Jesus?
- What do you think the difference is between asking for healing and reaching out for healing from Jesus?
- What is the difference between healing and wholeness?
- Our culture tends to be so focused on cures rather than full healing. Why do you think this is?
