

Reflection Questions:

- What do you think it means for Jesus to fulfill the law and prophets?
- What do you think the disciples' reaction would have been to this statement?
- How does Jesus both fulfill and accomplish all the law is intended for?
- How are Jesus' words here connected to his dying words on the cross, "It is finished."?
- What other simple legal examples come to mind when thinking about Jesus' statement?
- How can we embrace the tension of receiving Jesus' righteousness while also living righteous lives?
- Honestly assess who/what rules your life. Is it Jesus or is it something/someone else?
