

Reflection Questions:

- Why do you think Jesus always pursued loving relationships?
- Why is it so difficult to simply pursue loving relationships?
- How is love filled with grace and truth?
- What types of people do you tend to judge too often? Why?
- What do you think the difference is between judgment and discernment?
- How are you asking, seeking, and knocking in relationship with your Heavenly Father in this season of life?
- What does the pursuit of a loving life tangibly look like for you this week?