

Reflection Questions:

- How is the gospel of Jesus Christ bearing fruit in your life? If it isn't, why not?
- What views from our culture might negatively influence your perspective?
- How should the gospel inform and transform the way you see yourself, others, the world?
- What else might your identity be in apart from being a child of God and follower of Jesus?
- What might you be placing your hope in apart from the promises of God?
- What are some tangible ways you can respond to the gospel with your life(style) and choices this week?
